TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

NOON DISPATCHES.

The Western Union Telegraph--Lake Shore in Jeopardy.

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—President Orton, of the Western Union Telegraph Company denies the rumor circulated that the lines of the Company were to be leased to a party of capitalists. No proposition has been submitted. He also denies another rumor that the dimension of the new telegraph building will be reduced.

It is stated that the transfer of two and a quarter million of Lake Shore R. R. bonds to Geo. B. Grinnel are entirely regular, but back of this these bonds are used for private speculation by prominent officials connected with the road. The bonds were hypotheeated by Grinnel & Co., and the money used for private speculation by the officers of the Lake Shore R. R., and under the panic were swept away. The Sun says that upon the death of Horace F. Clark, who appears to have been in the pool, Vanderbilt, who succeeded, compelled the investigation of these transactions. There are other irregularities in which the Union Trust Company used about $3,000,000. The plan for resumption is so far a failure. The compulsory bankruptcy of the Lake Shore Road is imminent.

MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

Financial Matters—Fisk & Hatch Explains—A Basis of Settlement Between the Union Trust Company and Other Concerns Agreed Upon—The Stokes Trial—The Prisoner on the Witness Stand.

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—Fisk & Hatch state in explanation of current rumors respecting their condition, that they have made satisfactory arrangements with the banks, who are their largest creditors, and expects to resume in a few days.

The basis of settlement between the Union Trust Company and the Lakeshare Railroad, was a proposal from Commodore Vanderbilt of three, six and nine months' note with collateral, and the offer was immediately made for the scales, and the receiver of the Company started for the Court. He obtained permission to sue them.

In Stokes trial this morning, the prisoner himself was placed on the stand, and on cross examination he swore that he did not know the man he saw coming up the steps of the Grand Central Hotel was Fisk, until the latter pulled out his pistol.

The Yellow Fever at Bainbridge, Georgia.

SAVANNAH, Oct. 24.—Special to the morning News, from Bainbridge, Ga., says that physicians concur in the opinion that the disease which broke out there a week or more ago, is yellow fever. There are 8 or 10 cases at present, and new ones are occurring. Simeon Augel, a prominent merchant, it is thought will not live through the day. B. F. Brutton, ex-Senator, from this District, is very low. Some families are preparing to leave, but there seems to be very little disposition yet for a panic. Business is at a stand still, and many merchants are speaking of closing up altogether. The city authorities are hard at work institutiug sanitary measures, but no quarantine measures have been taken.

The Business to be Disposed of Before the United States Supreme Court.

WASHINGTON, Oct, 24.—The business before the United States Supreme Court may be briefly stated as follows: About twelve cases of more or less importance which were argued at the last term of the Court were held over for decision at the present term, among them, ten of the cases were from Utah, one of which presents the same question as was decided in Clinton et al. versus Englebrecht, et al., some two years since, whether it is the duty of the United States Attorney for the Territory to prosecute, in the several counties, all persons assesed at the office as well as against the law of the United States, as well as against the law of the Territory. TheCourt below sustained the District Attorney that the Courts established in the Territory were Courts of the United States.—The case is to be decided upon the authority of the case cited where the decision must be overruled, for it was held (the late Chief Justice delivering the opinion) that these Courts were Courts of the Territory, and not Courts of the United States. The other Utah case presented the question of jurisdiction of the Probate Courts of the Territory under the act of Congress organizing the territorial government. Another case held over, comes from the Supreme Court of Iowa, and presents the question whether the various State laws, and particularly those of Iowa, providing for the manufacturer of the sale of alcoholic liquor, are not conflicting with the provision of the 14th Amendment. It is conceded that inasmuch as liquors are recognized as property by the Federal laws, no State can deprive its citizens of the right to hold and deal in it. The manner sought, and the party whose property has been seized and destroyed under the law is entitled to redress by virtue of the amendment cited, and to immunity in the future.

A case involving the constitutionality of the enforcement act from South Carolina, argued last winter by Reverdy Johnson against the constitutionality of the act, was also on the docket for decision, but the pardon of the party by the President on account of extenuation in the case has canceled the case by the abatement. Mr. Johnson was quite anxious that the case should be decided last term, and was hopeful of a decision sustaining his position, relying somewhat upon its sanction by the then Chief Justice.

A number of cases were also ordered for re-argument, mostly tax and railroad cases. The exaction of the revenue of the departments on the docket is very full, and under the new law allowing appeals and writs of error from the State courts whenever a Federal question is raised on trial, must continue to increase and perhaps even to the extent to require a remedy.

The Remnant of the Modocs.

REDDINGS, CAL., Oct. 24.—The people come from every quarter to see the remnant of the Modocs. They were a sorry looking party. Capt. Jack's wife and Princes Mary attracted most attention. A goldfish globe, filled with water, hanging in the window of Dr. Mathewson's house, at Durham, Maine, set the casement on fire one morning recently, the globe acting as a burning glas. Had the family been absent a conflagration might have resulted, and its origin unaccountable.

A female lecturer in Boston recently said: "Get married, young men, and be quick about it. Don't wait for the girls to become angels, for remember you would be very much out of place beside an angel."

LOCAL BRIEFS—

A bad marriage is like an electric machine; it makes you dance, and you cant let it go.

Governor Allen, of Ohio, is a native of Chowan county, and is well remembered by many of the old citizens of that section.

It must not be presumed that Morgan, who received a premium at the State Fair for a "spark-arrester," has a family of daughters.

The young lady who drew the barrel of Patapsco flour at the Gift Concert sold it on yesterday to Dr. Blacknall for $15. The Doctor always goes for the best of everything.

Jackson Massey, the blind boy that has been giving musical concerts in some of the western towns, has returned to the Deaf, Dumb and Blind Institution of this city.

"Love your neighbor as yourself"—we have tried it on and believe a fit can be made if the neighbors will only remove those biting dogs that fly at our heels every night.

Egg shells given to hens will make them lay. We give this information on the authority of a friend in the eastern ward who tried the experiment with success last winter.

We are indebted to Mr. R. H. Bradley, the confectioner, for a number of those elegant "Banker" cigars which are to be found at his establishment. Bradley is a good judge of cigars.

If there had been a premium offered for good-looking men, Captain McCaull would have had a good showing.

It is not generally known, but nevertheless a fact, that the late William Eaton, Sr., of Warren county, was the largest tobacco grower in the world. The large farm that produced this great quantity of tobacco is now devoted exclusively to the production of cotton.

We learned from Weldon yesterday evening that the number of entries to the Fair thus far have largely exceeded those of any former year. The crowd attending will doubtless be largely increased. The people along the line of the Raleigh & Gaston Road will be there almost en masse.

Keep your tickets. The official report of the Commissioners of the late Gift Concert will doubtless change some few of the figures as published in the NEWS and Sentinel the day after the drawing, as typographical errors must necessarily occur in a report hurriedly gotten up, and as long as the one referred to.

We are indebted to our young friend, John R. Williams, Jr., for a delightful treat a couple of nights since, just about that time when a night Editor begins to think of a smoking supper, in the shape of an elegantly cooked 'possum and the necessary attendants. We dreamed that night that John "ought to be married."

Thomas M. Argo, Albert Johnson and Aaron D. Jenkins, we learn have already entered the field as candidates for the office of Treasurer of the Insane Asylum. J. C. L. Harris is the present incumbent, and doubtless would like to have another slice of the pie, and the general rumor is that he has the best showing for the slice. Mr. Argo is a director of the Asylum.

ANNUAL FAIR OF THE ALBEMARLE AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.—We acknowledge an invitation to attend the annual exhibition of this Society, which takes place at Elizabeth City on the 6th and 7th of November.

DISTILLERY BURNED.—We learn that the turpentine distillery at Selma, Johnston county, the property of J. A. Ford, Esq., was destroyed by fire Thursday night, together with a lot of naval stores ready for shipment. Loss about $800.

ANNUAL MEETING.—The regular annual meeting of the Directors of the Insane Asylum of North Carolina will be held at the Asylum on the 4th of November. Wesley Whitaker is President and J. C. L. Harriss Secretary and Treasurer of the Board.

TURNER'S N. C. ALMANAC.—J. Enniss, Agent, has placed on our table Turner's N. C. Almanac for 1874, for which we return our thanks. Besides the careful calculations for the horizon and meridian of Raleigh, by Rev. Dr. Craven, of Trinity College, this issue of the Almanac contains fifty-six pages of useful and highly instructive reading matter, which is worth much more than the small sum asked for it. The department devoted to the annual State record of 1873, is a new feature of the almanac that will commend it to popular favor everwhere.

CONCERT AND CANTATA AT THE OXFORD ORPHAN ASYLUM.—It was our good fortune to make one of the small audience that attended the concert given by the Orphans of the Oxford Orphan Asylum in their Chapel on Tuesday night last. Flaming posters on the streets announced the object of the Concert to raise funds for the purpose of supplying the poor little unfortunates with bed blankets for the winter, and we made an early start in order to get room, thinking that for such a cause Oxford and its visitors would turn out enmasse. But strange to say Oxford and its visitors could not see it through our glasses, and the attendance was very small. The exercises, consisting of songs, recitations, dialogues and speeches by the Orphans, were peculiarly interesting and highly enjoyable to the few auditors present. The song, "Driven from Home," sung by a class of about a dozen children, male and female, was most capitally rendered, and judging by the number of damp eyes in our vicinity, was received with telling effect. Classes or Forms were examined in spelling, arithmetic, geography and history, and the aptness and thourough efficiency displayed by the pupils reflected great credit upon the competency and ability of the talented corps of teachers. We seriously doubt if any school in the State can boast of an abler corps of teachers than the Oxford Asylum, and the object of the Grand Lodge in securing the best of our State talent for this purpose has been happily carried out. The Rev. Mr. Cohen, as the principal of the Faculty, is a gentleman peculiarly fitted both by nature and accomplishments for the high and responsible duty of his position, and seconded by his accomplished daughter and Misses Clewell, of Salem, and Long, of Greensboro, with Mrs. Robards, of Oxford, as matron, there could not have been better or more wise selections.

Wednesday night the chapel of the Asylum was occupied by the ladies of the Episcopal Church for a "Cantata," the proceeds of which were applied to the church and asylum. The attendance was much larger than on the occasion of the concert, and the receipts as a consequence greater. The young ladies and gentlemen who personated the representation of ——, (we did not hear the prologue, and never knew what was represented,) performed their parts well, rendering entire satisfaction to the large audience. The music and singing was not altogether as good as that of the orphan concert, but the performance was highly creditable, and we are glad to know that a handsome amount was realized. After the Cantata, a refreshment room was thrown open, where oysters and other delicacies were dealt out to the hungry. By special invitation we made one of a merry party of five around a "flowing bowl" of oysters, and if we were not a married man of several years standing, would confess that we enjoyed the company more than we did the bivalves. We had a delightful time, and will long remember the agreeable entertainment of that evening's oyster party.

CAPT. R. T. FULGHUM.—The New York South of the 9th inst., from which we have already quoted largely, thus speaks of the gentleman whose name heads this article:

"Capt. R. T. Fulghum, the Secretary of the State Agricultural Society, was born in the county of Nash, August 13th, 1841, and is 32 years of age. He has filled many positions of trust. He entered the Confederate army at 19 years old as private and was promoted for meritorious conduct to a Captaincy. Since the war he has been engaged in mercantile enterprises, farming, &c. He has been for five years and is now one of the vice presidents of the Cape Fear Agricultural Society, and Secretary of the State Agricultural Society. He possesses the valuable qualifications which enable a man to take up all the details of a large and complex enterprise and in the getting up and successful conduct of fairs has rendered his State very valuable service. Capt. Fulghum is a self-made man, and his record is an encouragement to those who have only their own personal efforts to depend on. In every relation of life he has sustained himself with credit to himself and advantage to those around him. In addition to being Secretary of the Agricultural Society, he is proprietor and conducting editor of the State Agricultural Journal, a paper that is growing in favor and patronage, and is destined to have an influence in its particular sphere second to none in the country."

A PLEASANT INCIDENT.—We mentioned incidentally at the time of its occurrence, the elegant serenade given by a number of our citizens to the officers of the State Agricultural Society and a few others. Capt. R. T. Fulghum, the working Secretary of the Society, was the first on the list. He responded to a call in a few well-timed and happy remarks. Mr. Weston, the pedestrian, and Col. A. A. McKoy, of Sampson, also responded to calls at Capt. Fulghum's residence.

Proceeding to the residence of Hon. K. P. Battle, Vice-President of the Society, this gentleman came out and acknowledged the compliment in his usual able and eloquent style. Capt. Jno. S. Dancy, the first President of the Society, and a guest of Mr. Battle's, was also called upon, but excused himself from a speech.

Col. Thomas M. Holt, the President, was next visited at the Yarboro House, and after repeated calls made his appearance on the balcony and acknowledged the compliment in a brief but handsome speech. Capt. Swift Galloway also responded to a call at the Yarboro, and thus ended one of the most pleasant incidents of Fair week.

SOME POTATOES.—We were shown yesterday four sweet potatoes raised on the garden farm of the Insane Asylum, that filled a half bushel measure, which, it is said, were only a fair specimen of vegetables raised on this excellent farm. We have frequently heard of this garden, that not only supplied the Asylum plentifully, but sold to the other public institutions of this city, and for the benefit of our truck gardners we purpose to go over and view the ground and interview Dr. Grissom on his mode of culture, etc.

A CHALLENGE—GRANVILLE COUNTY AGAINST THE WORLD—WESTON, LOOK TO YOUR LAURELS.—Caswell Young, of Granville county, writes to us from Oxford, that he will walk with Weston or any other man for a wager on the Weldon Fair grounds next week, the time and distance to be stated by the officers of the Society. Young makes the following propositions: "I will compete with Weston, the American champion for a wager in a walking match 30 to 300 miles; I will compete with any man in the State on the Weldon Fair grounds next week, any distance the Society may mention; or I will perform Weston's feat at the Raleigh Fair in less time on the Weldon track; or I will agree to walk 30 miles in 3 hours for a moderate purse from the Society."

We know Young personally, and we know his reputation as a walkist in Granville county. He says he has made 30 miles in 3 hours at a Monday morning gait, and is certain that he can beat his own time. We hope the officers of the Weldon Fair will invite this North Carolina walkist to their grounds next week, and let us see if we have not a Weston among us.

COL. POOL ON THE STATE FAIR AND THE STATE.—Col. Pool, in Our Living and Our Dead, thus concludes an article on the State Fair:

"We have always glorified in being a son of North Carolina, and what we saw here last week has made us prouder than ever of our native State. She is the peerless mother of gallant sons and fair daughters; she has a soil of unsurpassed fertility, a climate healthful and genial; her forests, her water courses, and her mountains abound in wealth; and she needs but the untiring industry and skill of millions to make her the Eden of the earth. Let us never forsake her; but true to her to the last, let us all seek to beautify and adorn her so that she may speedily become the cherished and ever blooming bride of the trinity—industry, intelligence and prosperity."

ALL QUIET ALONG THE LINES.—The Mayor's levee yesterday was unattended, the station house empty, policemen looked in vain for a job, and items in this line as scarce as hen's teeth. There was not even a dog fight, mule runaway, an auction or a school boy quarrel to report. "Quiet reigned in Warsaw;" and such a dirth of street items we never experienced. We are fond of good order and strict police discipline, but there can be too much of a good thing. Local editors must live, and, like lawyers, live on the misfortunes of others, and we have reason to complain of an excess of good order in the city. Raleigh is sufficiently large to furnish at least three fights and a runaway daily, and it is hard that a localizer should be compelled to draw on his imagination in order to keep his readers posted on street sensations.

BROWN'S MUSEUM.—Attention is called to the advertisement in another column of N. L. Brown, the fancy goods, toy dealer and confectioner, two doors south of the Express office, on Fayetteville street. The Museum is one of the most attractive points in the city, as Brown will have every novelty in his line as fast as they are patented. His aviary and aquarium forms an interesting feature of the Museum, which, together with patent baby swingers, doll-baby houses, musical instruments, in short, anything from a pig's yoke to a steamboat, is such a general and attractive medley that the well known stand is very properly dubbed Brown's Museum. As he is now selling at panic prices, we would suggest that it is a good season for pleasing the children. Go and see him.

THE PROPOSED CITY RAILWAY.—An application will be made to the next session of the Legislature for a charter to build a street railway for the city of Raleigh, if granted, work on the same will commence at an early day. The proposed route of the line will be from the Central depot via Cabarrus street to Fayetteville. Newbern Avenue, Hillsboro and Halifax streets are also mentioned in connection with the proposed line. It is with great pleasure that we record this further evidence of our growing prosperity, and moreover that the enterprise is in good hands, of men who know not the word fail, and who have the means to carry on and complete the work.

A NEW LIGHT.—Messrs. Miller & Clifton have erected in front of their restaurant 31½, Fayetteville street, a cut glass globe gas light, which is decidedly the prettiest thing in the shape of a gas light on the street. The globe is supplied with four revolving gas jets, which, with its red, green and white shades, emits a brilliancy that attracts from afar. Mr. Stephenson, of the Raleigh gas works was the architect of the new light, which he informs us cost the firm $158.00. Thus it will be seen that this firm are spareing no expense to make their restaurant attractive, both within and without, and are determined to get a full share of public patronage.

DEATH OF ALFRED HOLLAND, ESQ.—We regret to learn from the Winston Republican of the sudden death of Alfred Holland, Esq., a native of this county. Mr. Holland was for some years a resident of Johnston county, where he filled the responsible trust of County Treasurer. He removed to Winston some two years ago, where he has since resided. He was engaged at his work in his usual good health on Thursday last when he was suddenly stricken down by apopolexy and expired. He was about 55 years of age, and leaves a wife and two children.

YELLOW FEVER IN TEXAS.—A private letter from Songvino, Texas, to a gentleman in this city says, "the fearful scourge, yellow fever, has made its appearance in Marshall, Texas, with as much violence as it did in Shreveport or Memphis. The people are panic stricken and great destitution and suffering must follow unless relief is sent from other quarters. God alone knows our fate."

THE LECTURE OF HON. A. M. WADDELL LAST NIGHT.—The crowded house and the general character of the audience at Metropolitan Hall last evening well attested the merited and deserved popularity of the distinguished Carolinian, Hon. A. M. Waddell, in our city. His subject, Hvitramannaland, is one of peculiar interest which is increased by the neat and cap ivating style of its pleasant and effective delivery. As to the theory advanced by Mr. Waddell, that this country was inhabited by a white race of people, of Celtic origin, five hundred years before Christopher Columbus was born, we propose to leave open for discussion by our Senior in his editorial columns to-morrow. We can but express our opinion that the speaker made out a clear case, and we are convinced that Chris was at least 530 years behind a lot of Irishmen that drifted down this way and started the first white colony on American soil. We must confess that we are weakening every day on the old blue back history of our schoolboy days. We were first told that the Mecklenburg Declaration was not made on the 21st of May; now that Christopher Columbus did not discover America, we have our fears about the safety of the 4th of July, and seriously doubt whether there was ever such a man as G. Washington. As to the "hatchet" story, we don't believe a word of it.

RESIGNED.—We learn that Thos. M. Argo, Esq., has resigned the editorial charge of the Mechanics and Working Mens' Journal, and his connection with that paper severed from date. We have not learned the name of the successor of Mr. Argo, or whether the vacancy has been supplied at all. If not, there is a good opening for a working man that has editorial ambition.

It is not generally known that John Milton's tomb is still intact in London, and that, in the parish of St. Giles, Cripplegate, the remains of the great poet, interred in 1674, lie with those of his father, buried in 1646 The church itself is of grand proportions, and the oldest but one in London, having been built in 1090.

DIED.

DENSON—At the residence of his father, in Pittsboro, N. C., on the 22nd inst, CLAUDE ASHBURNE, eldest son of Claude R. and Matilda M. Denson, aged 7 years 2 months.

SAM'L T. WILLIAMS, Political Editor.

SATURDAY.....OCTOBER 25, 1873.

"THE Panic in History," to be found on our fourth page, is worth reading.

THE friends of the State Fair have just cause to feel gratified at the flattering accounts given of the late exhibition by the papers both in and out of the State.

FIVE of the Roman Catholic Priesthood of Memphis have fallen victims to the yellow fever. Many of the Sisters of Charity have alike sacrificed themselves upon the alter of duty.

GOV. WALKER, Col. WM. E. CAMERON, Col. R. B. BERKLEY, and other gentlemen, are canvassing Eastern Virginia for the KEMPER ticket. They were in Portsmouth on Tuesday night.

THE Richmond papers say that the Virginia State Fair, which commences next Tuesday, will be a more thorough success than formerly. The annual address will be delivered on Thursday by Gov. WALKER.

'Possum and persimmon time has come in North Carolina, and yet the people are not happy.—Richmond Enquirer.

The Enquirer under estimates our feelinxs—we are just so happy as never vas.

THE Salisbury Watchman says that its "Independence" consists in a desire "to purge the Democratic party, or the party that opposes Radicalism, of all the faithless and corrupt leaders it may have held."

THE physicians of Memphis, after they return home, will hold an indignation meeting to censure the Richmond Enquirer for thus pun-ishing them. Says that paper:

"The Physicians are reported as fleeing from Memphis. They evidently act upon the principle of 'Physician, heel thyself.'"

THE people of Kansas are undoubtedly enterprising, to an extent deserving emulation. At Oswego recently a man, whilst getting ready for a party, dropped his pocketbook containing $1,000 into the cistern. He bailed forty barrels of water from that cistern, recovered the money, and got on his clean shirt in time for the party.

FIVE deaths of Congressmen-elect have occurred since the election last year, viz: JAMES BROOKS, of New York; WM. WHITING, of Massachusetts; WILDER D. FOSTER, of Michigan; A. V. R. WRIGHT, of Georgia; and JOSEPH G. WILSON, of Oregon. ALEX. H. STEPHENS has already been elected to fill the place of Gen. WRIGHT, and JAMES W. NESMITH in place of Mr. WILSON.

THE Norfolk Landmark editorializes the growth of that city. It says says the evidences of improvement going on there "must eventually rank her among the largest and most prosperous cities of the South." The natural advantages which one of the finest harbors in the world gives that city, backed by her railroads stretching to the far West, needs only a proper display of the energies of her citizens to make Norfolk all that the Landmark claims for it.

THE Brooklyn Eagle, referring to the fact that whilst grain is selling in New York at something over a dollar a bushel, the farmers of many of the Western States find it more profitable to use their cereals as manure than to send it to the seaboard, says:

"In this state of things, resides the grand enigma of American statecraft and citizenship. The coming man is he who shall devise a plan which shall secure to the farmer a fair compensation for his toil, to the railroads a proper return for their expenditures, and, to the residents of our large cities, bread at a reasonable price."

THE following from a Memphs paper tells only too plainly the sad ravages of the pestilence that has swept over that city:

"The hand of death has fallen heavly on the household of Mr. Oliver C. Woodard. First, the eldest son died; soon afterward both Mr. and Mrs. Woodard fell victims to the pestilence; Friday ntght their little daughter Alice died, to be followed yesterday by her sister Emily, still younger, while a baby sister, only fourteen months old, was reported dying last night. Another sister, Sallie, the second to take the disease, was removed from the stricken dwelling and is slowly recovering. The only member of the family whe has escaped the fever is a little boy."

THE Richmond Enquirer, in an able editorial upon the present campaign in Virginia, thus well states a potent fact:

"It is obvious to every observing man that so long as those States of the South which, ever since the war, have been held down by Radical rule, continue to be kept down, the commercial interests of the whole country must suffer. Just as the limbs of a tree that are denuded of their foliage by the caterpilar are made languid and ultimately lifeless; not only failing to contribute as they should to the vitality and vigor of the whole tree, but impairing its healthfulness and threatening its existence, so the several Southern States that have been paralyzed in their industries by the baneful agencies and influences of Radicalism, have been, and are, and must be while they are subservient to the political power of the negroes and their allies, little better than dead or dying offshoots of the great body politic of the country."

THE many friends of the Rev. Dr. MUNSEY will be gratified to learn that he has recovered from the unfortunate mental condition under which he was recently suffering. He appeared before the Holston Conference of the M. E. Church at Marion, Va., last week, and satisfied the Conference of his restoration to health and perfect capability for the discharge of ministerial duties.

THE Durham Tobacco Plant thinks the walking of Weston on the race track at the State Fair "an absurd thing." He offers to bet $500 that he can beat Weston's time. As friend Greene only doubled in his statement the amount paid Weston, is it not reasonable to suppose he has over-calculated his powers of endurance? Who will take up the wager—the half-mile backwards included?

THE Republicans of Virginia have been thrown into some confusion by the discussion of the question of the ineligibility of their Gubernatorial candidate, Col. HUGHES, on account of his connection with the CLARKSON-FOWLER duel. It was rumored that he would withdraw in favor of Gov. WISE or some one else. This rumor is denied, and HUGHES will remain on the ticket in order to find himself defeated on the 4th of November.

THE political warfare in the good old Mother of States waxeth warm as the election draweth near. The bonfires of the Conservative party are burning upon every hill-top throughout Virginia, while her valleys and the plains of the Eastern shore re-echo the war-whoop that will, on the 4th day of November, sweep down the last vestige of Republicanism in that State. We have never seen the people of Virginia more thoroughly in earnest than at present—her sons are moving forward with that same determination that has so often won them glory upon their own mother soil, in conflicts more deadly and bloody than the present, and we have not a shadow of doubt that they will safely anchor their State into conservative moorings on the 4th proximo. They have our "God speed them," and Virginia will not throw its hat higher than will North Carolina at the result of that day's work.

A NEW WRITING MACHINE.—A writing machine on trial at Washington, D. C., is thus described: The machine is about the same size as an ordinary sewing machine, and can be worked by a child who can spell as easily as by a grown person. It consists of a series of forty-two keys, to which are attached two steel hammers, and each one of these represents a letter, a figure or a punctuation mark. The keys are arranged in four rows, like the keys of an organ, and are operated on precisely the same principle. The hammers are arranged in a circle, and when the key is pressed the corresponding letter moves to the centre, receding again immediately when the pressure is removed. A space key is provided, by means of which the spaces between the words are made. Mr. Washburne, of San Francisco, patented an improvement on the machine, and he contemplates the use of printer's ink. In the original, the color is taken from a prepared ribbon, which is between the hammer and the paper. At the end of each line the machine is adjusted for the next line by means of a treadle, which is worked by the feet of the operator. By this machine three times as much work can be written as an ordinary man can write.

Two beggars in St. Louis recently dissolved partnership, and have gone to law over the capital, amounting to $10,000.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency, the Governor of North Carolina.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
Raleigh, October 22nd, 1873.

WHEREAS, The people of North Carolina have been abundantly blessed during the past year, and the earth hath yielded bounteously of all the products of its soil so that the garners of the husbandman are filled to overflowing; and the industrious mechanic has realized a rich reward for his labor, and every class of our population prospered in all laudable enterprises; and WHEREAS, above all, fraternal feelings and good will have in a great measure been restored in our midst, and no plague, pestilence or famine, has visited our State: Now therefore, as it becomes us, a grateful people, to render thanks to Almighty God for these and numberless other blessings showered upon us in His great mercy; I, Tod R. Caldwell, Governor of North Carolina, in obedience to law and in conformity with an honored precedent, do appoint and set apart as a day of public Thanksgiving throughout the State; and I do earnestly invite the clergy of every denomination to open their respective houses of worship on said day and to exhort their congregations to humble themselves before the throne of the ever living God, and render unto Him praises which are justly due, invoking for themselves, their State and their whole country, His guidance and protection throughout all time to come.

Thursday, November 27th, 1873,

"O come, let us sing unto the Lord, let us make a joyful noise to the Rock of our salvation."

"Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving and make a joyful noise unto him with psalms."

Done at the city of Raleigh, on this the 22nd day of October, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and seven-three, and in the ninety-eighth year of American Independence.

$10 GREATEST INVENTION OF THE AGE. $10

THE VERY LATEST IMPROVEMENT.

Satisfaction Guaranteed in Every Instance.

OTHER MACHINES HAVE THEIR PECULIAR MERITS—THIS HAS NO DEFECT.

Have Never Known One That Failed to Give Satisfaction!

No other Machine can be sold after the "FRANKLIN" has been Tried.

From One to Two Thousand Dollars a Year Guaranteed to Working Men!

Every County Sold in Which it has been Introduced.

WE CHALLENGE THE WORLD TO COMPETE WITH IT!!!

The inventor of the "FRANKLIN STEAM WASHER" was owner of the right to manufacture the "Improved" Woman's Friend in certain territory. While manufacturing these machines, and watching attentively their action and the manner in which they operated, and the results, he discovered certain prominent defects therein. He spent ten months in the study of the subject of finding remedies for these defects. He has at last succeeded—and as the result of his investigation and study, he offers to the public the "FRANKLIN STEAM WASHER," which is by far the best Washing Machine ever patented. We claim as an evidence of its merit that "LETTERS PATENT" were granted over all others.

It will wash anything from a Lace Collar to a Bed Blanket. It will cleanse the clothing without tearing and more thoroughly than can possibly be done by hand labor or the use of the rubbing board. With one-fourth of the labor four times as much can be done in the same length of time as can be done by hand. We could publish columns of certificates of its worth from those who have used it, but for the present we prefer the WASHER to speak for itself. We give a few below:

Messrs. BARROW & PLEASANTS, LOUISBURG, September 27th, 1873.
GENTLEMEN:—Mrs. Davis has tried the "FRANKLIN STEAM WASHER" and instructs me to say, in reply to your enquiry, that she is well pleased with it, and believes it to be all that you claim for it as a labor saving Machine. It does its work well and diminishes, by more than half, the labor of washing. She cheerfully recommends it.
JOSEPH J. DAVIS.

Messrs. BARROW & PLEASANTS, LOUISBURG, September 10th, 1873.
GENTLEMAN:—Before purchasing your Steam Washer, I paid four dollars per month for our family washing; now without any additional help, I have the washing done at home and pay fifty cents a week to have the ironing done. In this way I save $2 per month, and my clothes are much whiter, and I am satisfied, will last much longer than when washed by rubbing or the use of a board. It is all that you recommend it to be.
Very respectfully, Mrs. C. M. COOKE.

Messrs. BARROW & PLEASANTS, LOUISBURG, September 11th, 1873.
GENTLEMEN:—I am using your Steam Washer, and it proves a success and I take pleasure in recommending it to the public, and testify to its being all that you represent it to be.
Very respectfully, Mrs. P. E. HAWKINS.

Messrs. BARROW & PLEASANTS, LOUISBURG, September 8th, 1873.
GENTLEMEN:—I have been using your Franklin Steam Washer for some time and can safely say is far the best I ever saw. I cannot do without it. Mrs. A. W. WILSON.

Messrs. BARROW & PLEASANTS, FRANKLINTON, September 9th, 1873
SIRS—Mrs. Gibbons has been using your "Franklin Steam Washer" for two weeks and pronounces it a grand success. Rev. H. H. GIBBONS.

Messrs. BARROW & PLEASANTS, LOUISBURG, August 4th, 1873.
GENTLEMEN:—I take pleasure in recommending your "Steam Washer." I acknowledge myself to have been incredulous with regard to yours, after having tested several others that had been as highly recommended to me; but the inconvenience to a large family, of not being able to get a good washer, regularly, induced me to give yours a trial. I am gratified to pronounce it a perfect success. I used it according to directions, and did two week's washing in two hours, nor did I give the first RUB. Whiter or more nicely washed clothes, I have never had. It only needs a trial to convince.
Respectfully, Mrs. W. H. FURMAN.

Messrs. BARROW & PLEASANTS, LOUISBURG, July 12th, 1873.
GENTLEMEN:—Through the kindness of your agent, Mr. J. J. Person, I have tried your "Steam Washer," and find it by far the best I ever used. It certainly saves a great deal of hard labor and does not damage the clothes. It is all that you recommend.
Respectfully, Mrs. Dr. J. B CLIFTON.

Messrs BARROW & PLEASANTS, LOUISBURG, June 30th, 1873.
DEAR SIRS:—I take pleasure in testifying, that I have used your "Steam Washer," with perfect success, and find it by far the most speedy and effectual mode of cleansing all kinds of fabrics I have ever known.
Very truly, Mrs. Dr. W. R KING.

Messrs. BARROW & PLEASANTS, LOUILBURG, August 5th, 1873.
GENTLEMEN:—My wife has been using the "Franklin Steam Washer" for some time and she, as well as the washerwoman, are highly pleased with it.
Very truly, ELLIS MALONE, M. D.

Messrs. BARROW & PLEASANTS, LOUISBURG, July 3rd, 1873.
GENTLEMEN:—I have used the "Steam Washer" I purchased of your agent, Mr. J. J. Person, and find that it will do more than you recommend. We are more than pleased with it.
Respectfully, S. E. COOK.

GENTLEMEN:—I have tested the Franklin Steam Washer, sold in this county by Mr. G. F. Littlejohn, and find it a perfect success, and I recommend it to everybody.

OURSELVES AS OTHERS SEE US:

"We take pleasure in saying that the "Franklin Steam Washer" is all that its proprietors claim it—a complete success. We hazard nothing in saying that nothing has ever been put upon the market that meets with such universal favor. We are yet to hear of the first one that does not give entire satisfaction.—Louisburg Courier.

"Messrs. Barrow and Pleasants constitute one of the strongest and most reliable firms in Louisburg, and from what we have heard of the "Franklin Steam Washer" and the high character of the parties controling it, we have no doubt but that it is all that they represent it to be."—Biblical Recorder.

"The patentees claim for the "Franklin Steam Washer" a superiority over all others, and from the description we have had of its workings, we believe its claims are well founded."—Christian Advocate.

"We have known Messrs. Barrow and Pleasants from 'our youth up,' and know they would not recommend anything unworthy of patronage. They are leading merchants in Louisburg."—Asheville Citizen.

We have acquired by purchase of the Patentee, Mr. S. W. Bartholomew, the sole right to manufacture and to sell the right to manufacture the "Franklin Steam Washer" within the United States and Territories.

We now offer the "Franklin Steam Washer" to the American people with full confidence that it will do all that we claim for it, and in order to introduce it as rapidly as possible, we are offering great inducements to working men who want to make money; We will sell State or County rights on very reasonable terms; for instance, we will sell the right to a county with ten thousand inhabitants for one hundred dollars. Within twelve months, if properly managed, the person can sell from three to five hundred Washers, at a profit of five dollars each, and his right will be worth more at the expiration of that time than it was at first, from the fact that it has been introduced and will sell in almost every family.

To parties wishing to buy State or county rights, we will, send, on receipt of five dollars, just one-half of the retail price, the "Franklin Steam Washer" complete, with instructions how to use, &c.; and after satisfying themselves that it is what we recommend it to be, they can correspond with us in regard to territory wanted, our terms, &c. We desire a good reliable General Agent in every State in the Union, and we invite correspondence with working men who would like to make money. None need apply who cannot furnish satisfactory evidence of their integrity and reliability.

Any tinner can make the "Washer," or parties buying county rights, can obtain them through us at cost.

All persons are warned against manufacturing or selling the "Franklin Steam Washer" without authority from us. Any person infringing upon our rights in this matter will be prosecuted.

☞ Our Mr. PLEASANTS will have rooms at the Yarborough House during Fair week and will give any information desired.

TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

We are well acquainted with Messrs. Barrow & Pleasants; as merchants they are doing a leading Business in their town. They are men of strict integrity and in every way reliable and responsible. They do what they engage to do.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

BILLOUS.—If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, despondent, have frequent headache, mouth tastes badly in morning, irregular appetite and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only a part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy. Sold by all first-class druggists.

How unnecessary the anguish many persons undergo from rheumatism, gout, neuralgia, toothache and earache. We are unnecessary because the application of Mexican Mustang Liniment to the affected part, or a few drops of it in the ears or tooth, affords instantaneous, and what is better, permanent relief. For cuts wounds, bruises, swellings, and all injuries or diseases which require treatment externally, this liniment is every where regarded as the most potent and reliable healing agent in existence. For all external injuries or ailments of horses and cattle, it is infallible.

His Honer, HENRY POTTER, late Judge of the United States Court for the District of North Carolina, gave the following as his opinion of Beckwith's Pills:

"For some ten or twelve years past I have been in the habit of using DR. BECKWITH'S ANTI-DYSPEPTIC PILLS in my family, and consider them so valuable a domestic medicine, that I never suffer my stock to be exhausted. I have used them with good effect in dyspeptic cases, under various modifications, and have found them efficacious in relieving from Sick Headache, and from all the usual symptoms of functional derangement of the viscera. As an apperient, they are excellent. I have long had the pleasure of an intimate acquaintance with the inventor of these Pills. He is a gentleman of talents, integrity and worth, and he ranks high in the science of medicine and the healing art.

Says the Tarboro Southerner of the 23d inst: "Col. C. B. Killebrew succeeded in securing this season one of the largest yields of corn ever reported in this county. On one acre of low lands, enriched by $24 worth of commercial fertilizers and $6 worth of home-made manures, he gathered eighteen and two-thirds barrels of corn. The corn was planted 15 inches by 4 feet, one stalk in a hill.

The Colonel intends to enter this large production at the Weldon Fair, where he will, no doubt, carry off the palm."

The North Carolina and East Tennessee Counterfeiters.

Our telegrams have twice recently referred briefly to the detection and arrest of an organized band of counterfeiters operating in the Western part of this State and East Tennessee. The following from a recent issue of the Washington Republican gives some of the particulars of the affair:

One of the most extensive raids ever organized against counterfeiters in this country has just been brought to a successful issue in the arrest of about seventy persons in Eastern Tennessee and Western North Carolina, which States have for several months past been overrun with this class of criminals.

The attention of the Treasury Department had been called to the presence of these violators of the law through numerous letters received from the best citizens of the districts above mentioned, and Secretary Richardson determined that the cabal should be broken up. A series of operations was decided upon and conducted under the immediate supervision of Col. Whitley, chief of the United States secret service, with the active co-operation of the Attorney General, who issued instructions to the United States marshals of the several districts to appoint as many special deputies to aid in making the arrests as the exigencies of the case might require.

Upon beginning his operations Colonel Whitley learned that the counterfeiters were banded together in organized gangs; that they lived in remote localities, many of them in the mountain districts. The labor of reaching them was one of time and patience, requiring the services of men who were brave, energetic and accustomed to hardship. The very best men of the force were accordingly selected for the duty, and one after another made their way to the infested districts, some as tobacco traders, some as speculators in land, others as dealers in illicit whisky, and others as tramps going through the country, in seedy garments, and seeking a day's employment here and there where they could obtain it. In these various capacities the secret service officers were entirely successful. They gained the confidence of the counterfeiters to an unlimited extent; ate, drank and slept with them, and bought their bogus money at satisfactory prices, without arousing a breath of supicion as to their real character.

To accomplish this several months of valuable time were consumed, as the gangs were scattered at distances of from forty to one hundred and twenty miles apart, away from the railroad lines, and it was no easy or desirable task to gain access to them, make their acquaintance, go with them to their homes, and become so thoroughly familiar with them as to be intrusted with their most valuable secrets. Nor were the criminals altogether of that class of the community who could plead ignorance of the law which they were violating with so much seeming immunity. They numbered among them doctors, lawyers, magistrates, postmasters, deputy United States marshals, school teachers, clerks of courts, storekeepers, and other tradesmen. Some of them were men of wealth and influence, (one being the prosecuting attorney for the people in the city of Knoxville,) who had aided in vitiating the currency to such an extent as to ruin many of the poorer classes.

As fast as the evidence was obtained against the accused it was lodged in the hands of United States Attorney George Andrews, of the Eastern district of Tennessee, and United States Attorney V. S. Lusk, of the Western district of North Carolina, both of whom gave their earnest cooperation to the work, and rendered efficient aid in making the labors of the secret service men a complete success. As the gangs in both States were intimately connected, it was deemed best that the movement looking to their arrest should be made simultaneously in both districts. The expedition at Knoxville was organized under Capt. Evans, United States marshal, a veteran of the war, and comprised twenty-five mounted men and seven on foot, all armed and provided with five days' rations. That in the Western district of North Carolina was organized under Robert M. Doughs, United States Marshal, and comprised twenty-four mounted men, also armed and rationed. These squads were subdivided so as to make the descent in several places.

Sunday, the 9th inst., was the day fixed for the movement, and on the evening of that day the mounted men quietly left Knoxville for Union and Granger counties, while the others took the cars for Carter's depot, on the line of the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia Railroad. Both these squads were accompanied by the secret service men, who acted as guides over the roads, and also in pointing out the residences of the accused parties. Meantime the marshal took measures to apprehend certain persons in the city of Knoxville, who were implicated as dealers in the nefarious stuff, and whose arrests could not be effected until the expedition had left for the country. Particulars of the raid in North Carolina have not yet fully come to hand, owing to the more extended area of country to be traversed. It is anticipated, however, that the raid there will be successful as in East Tennessee, and that the operations of the secret service men in both localities will result in the extermination of the worst gangs of criminals that ever infested these States.

The latest case of hydrophobia is reported from England as follows: "About two months ago Mr. Ralph Shanks, of Kidlaw, was taking his breakfast, when his cur dog seized a pet lamb which came into the room. The dog and lamb had been on very friendly terms, and had often played together. In trying to protect the lamb Mr. Shanks was bitten by his dog. He shut the dog up in a stable and left home. Miss Shanks afterwards went into the stable, when it flew at her, bit her arm and escaped, going to Divit Hill. A doctor cauterized the wound and the dog was destroyed. A few days ago the lamb showed signs of rabies and was killed. On the 14th ultimo Miss Shanks became ill, and after a period of terrible suffering the unfortunate young woman died."

The Panic in History.

A Brooklyn exchange thus feelingly handles the rise, progress and decline of the panic, which version, it is believed, will be of decided interest to the religious historians of the future:

1. Now it came to pass in the fifth year of the reign of Ulysses, son of Jesse, that many of the money changers were gathered together in the temple of Mammon, in the the city of Gotham, where they were wont to gather and rob each man his brother, of the birthright which he had.

2. For these were sons of Belial who prayed not unto the Lord, but preyed each upon his fellow. And if a stranger passed by, him they took in.

3. For their days were spent in getting many shekels, and their nights in riotous living.

4. And lo these men talked not in the language of the people, but used strange words, that were as a shiboleth unto the people of the land. And they trafficked in puts and calls and stocks and many abominable things.

5. And they worspiped a graven image.

6. Now this graven image was a strange god and a mighty one, wherefore certain of the scoffers among the scribes called him the Almighty. And his name was Dollar.

7. And behold these sons of Belial had builded a temple over against the street called Broad, near to the street that leadeth from the temple of the Lord even unto the river that floweth past the city of Gotham.

8. Now it came to pass that their god Dollar was wroth with them, and he smote his high priest called Jay, who cooked the sacrifices in his temple.

9. And a great fear fell upon all those who worshipped the god Dollar, and they said, lo, we be all lame ducks.

10. And they called on the King, Ulysses, to come into Gotham and to offer sacrifices unto their god. For Ulysses worshipped the god Dollar even as all the people did, in secret, but he swore by the Lord when he stood in the high places and was anointed King.

11. And Ulysses came into Gotham with certain of his privy counsellors, and tarried at an inn. And Ulysses was heavy with wine.

14. For their god Dollar hath withholden from thy servants his presence, and there is much sorrow among thy servants.

15. And certain of the people whom the sons of Belial had taken in, stood near by, about a stone's throw, and scoffed at the sons of Belial, and spitefully entreated them.

16. And they cried Aha! Aha! Those who have robbed the people have come unto grief, and the darkness of night falleth upon them.

18. And Jay, the son of Gould, an heathen man and a sinner, scoffed with the people, for lo! he had robbed the money changers of many talents, and he had locked up his treasures. But he, too, worshipped the god Dollar.

19. But Ulysses, the son of Jesse, was sore disgusted, for he said within himself:

20. Lo, now the money changers are the friends of the King, and have borne unto me many gifts of corn, and wine, and shekels, and frankincense, and bull pups and myrrh.

21. Behold I will help these sons of Belial, for that they may in the days to come bring more presents.

22. And he cried with a loud voice, so that all the people of the land heard his words:

23. And he said, Lo, now I will take the shekels that are in the King's treasury, and give them unto the people.

24. But Ulysses was a cunning man and a sly, and he took from each man to whom he gave the shekels, the parchment on which was written the sum that the King owed to each man.

25. And the temple of Mammon, where the sons of Belial gathered together and worshipped the god Dollar, was shut for many days.

26. And Lo, these things are written by David, the son of Sitruc, a scribe from the East. And shall not the history of the days that followed after be written in like fashion?
